Store Editorial

A Helpful Plan
Our merchandising plan is like this: Domestic goods direct from the mills, foreign goods direct from foreign manufacturers. Our business affiliations enable us to do this—and the advantages are shared between our customers and ourselves. As a result of our ample capital and powerful trade connections there is not a liberal discount advantage which we (and you) do not enjoy, as all advantages are shared with our customers in better values. This is a big business enterprise, not a small one. We are doing big things and striving to do them well.

John Porteous
President.
